Lucy G. Thomas, of Groveland, was renominated Mutual president by a unanimous vote of the 17 directors present. In a surprise move, Director Dan McKinnon, of Winter Garden, introduced a motion for the creation of a "bankers' committee, the purpose of which would be to keep the state's financial men informed on the operations of Florida Citrus Mutual. McKinnon was named chairman of the committee.

The present executive committee was also reelected for another year. It consists of Thomas, McMullen, Earl Brown of DeLand, McKinnon, Michael Morton and Earl W. Hart of Avon Park. Election of an advisory committee was deferred until a later date "for further study."

On Thursday, June 30, the Mt. Dora Kiwanis Club observed Florida Citrus Mutual Day in honor of the newly elected officers. One of the first service groups in the state to actively support the Citrus Mutual, the Kiwanis set aside the day to pay tribute to Mutual and its leaders. The county is already doing this with pigs, he said. The stockade is located on Jog Road, two miles north of Lake Worth Road.

Hotel Board Gets New Name But The Work Is To Be Same

TALLAHASSEE — State Hotel Commissioner James T. Landon will have a new title on July 1, 1951, but he will continue doing much the same work that he has been doing since January 12th.

JAMES T. LANDON

1949, when Governor Fuller Warren appointed him to his present position.

The 1951 Legislature reorganized the Hotel Commission into the Florida Hotel and Restaurant Commission and provided that the Commission would be directed by a Commissioner to be selected by the Governor and the State Cabinet.

Governor Warren and the Cabinet, this morning, unanimously selected Landon to administer the affairs of the new Commission.

The Legislature also provided for an advisory council composed of the current state presidents of the various associations representing the industries which are supervised by the Hotel and Restaurant Commission.

The first advisory council will be made up of Sterling Bottomo of St. Petersburg, President of the Florida Hotel Association; Vic Wilcoxon of Vero Beach, President of the Florida Restaurant Association; M. E. Welmer of New Smyrna, President of the Florida Motor Court Association; Peter Stein, Jr. of St. Petersburg, President of the Florida Apartment House Association and former Governor Doyle

Stomach Distress Is Gone After Ten Years Of Suffering

One man recently stated that for 10 years he was troubled with stomach distress and was weak, felt worn out, and terribly run down and he had tried many medicines but with not effect. Recently he started taking INNER-TONE and says after only two days he started feeling better. System is regular, headaches are gone and he eats, sleeps, and feels fine, in fact is an altogether different man. INNER-TONE is the new formula of juices from nature's plants combined with blood building IRON and nerve strengthening VITAMINS B-1, B-2, and B-6. It has relieved many people who had never been really helped before by any medicine. Taken shortly before meals it mixes with your food and aids digestion "thus eliminating gas and bloat". So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-TONE at CARTER-GEIGER drug store.

Carlton, President of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

These men will meet with the Commissioner at least twice a year and advise him as to the wishes of the industry, and in general, work toward a close cooperation between the state agency and the industry.

The reorganization act, which becomes effective July 1, 1951, transfers all of the authority, rules, and regulations of the thirty-eight year old State Hotel Commission to the new Commission. Landon will have much the same supervisory powers of the state's 1,500 hotels, 12,185 apartment houses, 13,016 rooming houses, 3,303 motor courts and 12,937 restaurants that he has had during the past two and one half years.

Landon is one of the original Warren supporters, having served with the Governor in World War II. Under Landon, the Hotel Commission has received national, as well as state wide, acclaim for its accomplishments during the past two and one half years. Various industry associations have gone on record many times as approving the work of Landon and his staff. Only recently, the Miami Beach Hotel Association gave an unprecedented testimonial dinner to Landon and his chief assistant, Jack Weatherford, at which more than 800 people were in attendance.

When advised of the appointment Landon said, "I am grateful to Governor Warren and to each member of the Cabinet for the opportunity to carry on the program which we have inaugurated, and which we believe offers the maximum in safety and sanitation to the people of Florida and the hundreds of thousands of tourists who visit our State annually and comprise Florida's greatest industry."

Among those attending the Rotary District Assembly convention at the Roney Plaza Hotel, Miami Beach, are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenberg of Canal Point.

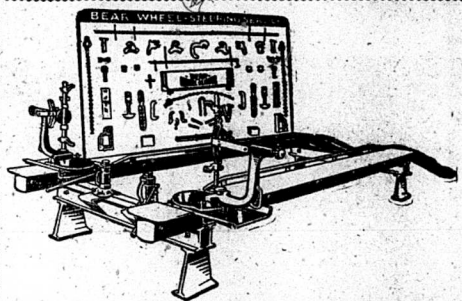

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Betty Hutton has endeared herself to the citizenry of Las Vegas, N. M. The other day she came to the rescue of a benefit here to raise funds for a school and hospital to house 127 handicapped children when she volunteered to substitute as headliner in the show for Red Skelton who is in the hospital recovering from an emergency appendectomy. She flew out of Hollywood over the weekend for the one performance sponsored by the newly-installed Las Vegas Tent and Variety Clubs, and organization of artists and theatre managers who devote their time, money and energy to bring comfort and relief to the distressed. There should be a medal of some kind for Betty. She has been working . . . and working hard . . . constantly since last December and yet she wired Gen. Goffstein, Chief Barker of the Las Vegas Variety Club, offering her services. Her offer was snapped up. Betty is the mother of two children and one of the highest paid stars in show-business for her rare personal appearances. Her appearance at this event will mean a sell out and it is expected $50,000 will be raised for the construction. Of course she donated her services. God bless Betty Hutton! Show business is filled with people like that. Show people are the most charitable people on the face of the earth. They do untold good throughout the world that never reaches the press. They seek no rewards, ask no favors, expect no thanks . . . They do it because they have a great love for humanity. See you at the movies—Mal.

Miss Patsy Elliott Weds Lee Wroten On June 30

Rainbow colors were used in the summer wedding of Miss Patsy Lee Elliott and Lee Allen Wroten whose marriage Saturday was one of the most outstanding social events of the season.

Following the ceremony the gardens and the modern ranch-type home of the bride's parents, Rep. and Mrs. B. Elliott, made a beautiful setting for the reception and buffet.

The First Methodist Church in Pahokee was the scene of the 6 o'clock ceremony which was attended by some 500 guests from all over the State, and many State officials and their wives.

Vows for the double ring ceremony, read by the Rev. Ralph W. Todd, pastor, were exchanged by the couple before an altar banked by palms and ferns, white cysanthemums, gladioli and stephanotis. The altar was lighted by white cathedral tapers in double candelabra and the pews were marked by white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a charming lace over satin. The gown, styled with simplicity, was fashioned with fitted bodice, pater pan collar and tiny lace-covered buttons down the front. The tight sleeves were pointed at the wrists and the full skirt ended in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace cap adorned with a halo of nylon net entwined with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid. A yellow gold brooch set with pearls, a gift of her parents, completed the bride's costume.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Howard D. Fields, Jr. of Pensacola, the bride's matron, Mrs. Paul Tillery, sister of the bridegroom, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Donna Joe Spooner, Tula Makos, Gloria Stuart and Myra June Baxter of Pahokee and Catherine Verser of Tallahassee, all wore orchid over taffeta in rainbow pastel shades. Their gowns were styled with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline finished with a dainty mitered collar and full skirt. All wore long white nylon mitts and their head-dresses of nylon net were entwined with variegated carnations which matched the flowers in the old-fashioned nosegays they carried.

The flower girls, Martha Jo Allen, cousin of the bride, and Tina Handley, wore blue and pink orchid over satin similarly styled. Allen Parker of Rockledge, cousin of the bride, and Mead Maxwell were ring bearers.

Raymond Caruthers, Jr., was Mr. Wroten's best man. Ushers were Elmer B. Elliott, brother of the bride, and Floyd Peacock, Pahokee; Clarence Padgett, Canal Point; Kenneth Johnson, Clewiston, and Charles Miller, Belle Glade.

Ronald Elliott, brother of the bride, and Tommy Elliott, her cousin, were balcony ushers. The tapers were lighted by Larry Elliott and Denny Parker, cousins of the bride, and Wayne Elliott, her brother, spread the carpet for the bridal party.

Miss Rita Faye Hurt, organist played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Millard Stanley who sang "Because" and "All Sweet Mystery of Life" and Miss Louise Hatton who sang "O Promise Me." Miss Hatton also sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Mrs. Elliott chose for her daughter's wedding a chartrouse crepe gown and a corsage of white carnations and Mrs. Wroten, mother of the bridegroom, wore black lace and nylon net over pink taffeta and a corsage of pink carnations.

In the receiving line at the reception with Rep. and Mrs. B. Elliott and the newlyweds were the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wroten, the matron of honor, the bride's matron and the bridesmaids.

At the bride's table were Mrs. W. I. Tillman, Sebring, Mrs. W. Harper Kendrick, Bartow, and Mrs. Cohen Blakey, Orlando, all aunts of the bride.

Serving at the punch bowl were Mrs. Thomas Elliott and Mrs. Otis Allen, Pahokee, Mrs. C. A. Parker, Orlando, Mrs. J. C. Doolittle, Belle Glade, Mrs. Everett Parker, Rockledge and Mrs. H. D. Parker of Clearwater, all aunts of the bride; also Mrs. J. A. Boyd, Leesburg, Miss Constance Smith, Belle Glade and Miss Joyce Burnsed, Macclenny.

Hosts and hostesses assisting Rep. and Mrs. B. Elliott were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rardin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hillier, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rozelle, the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph W. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schroder, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cross, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Spooner, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Butler, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wroten, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dulaney and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Lair.

In the bride's room were Mrs. H. D. Fields, Sr., aunt of the bride, Mrs. Otto R. Blech and Mrs. John T. Pickett.

Mrs. David Blech, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Murray O. Weeks were in charge of the bride's book.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Wroten left on a honeymoon to North Carolina where they will spend the summer. They plan to return in the fall and make their home in Pahokee.

Defense is your job, too!

Reflecting brilliant factory lights like a myriad glimmering stars, these masterpieces of American industrial design are in reality plastic plane noses awaiting inspection. They will play an important part in America's preparedness program; they are the tools of the U. S. Air Force in its job of defending you.

Defense is your job, too. And one of the best ways you can carry out your part is by making your family and your country economically strong. Buy United States Defense* Bonds now and buy them regularly. Go to the pay office where you work and sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan, or join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Do it today!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence

Remember that when you're buying Defense Bonds you're building a personal reserve of cash savings. Money that will some day buy you a house, or educate your children, or support you when you retire. Remember, too, that if you don't save regularly, you don't save at all.

So go to your company's pay office—now—and sign up for regular Defense Bond purchases through the Payroll Savings Plan. In this plan, you may save as little as $1.25—or as much as you want—each week. If you can save just $7.50 weekly, in ten years you'll have bonds worth $4,329.02 cash!
